Moreton Kids Festival Returns for the Ultimate Kids Day Out

Pine Rivers Park is set to come alive on Sunday, 9 March 2025, as the much-loved Moreton Kids Festival returns bigger and better than ever. Promising the ultimate kids day out, City of Moreton Bay's favourite family event will deliver a jam-packed lineup of free activities, live entertainment, and interactive zones designed to captivate children of all ages.

This much-loved annual event highlights include a thrilling Hot Wheels Team fun zone, free amusement rides, craft activities, kids' workshops, free face painting, and Queensland's largest travelling outdoor wildlife exhibit. Adding to the excitement, beloved children's characters Peppa Pig and Paddington Bear will take to the Ausbuild main stage for two live performances each, making this year's event truly unforgettable.

Mayor Peter Flannery expressed excitement for the festival, emphasising its importance to the community.

"The Moreton Kids Festival is a testament to our Council's commitment to creating unforgettable experiences for families.

"This year's event promises to deliver endless joy, creativity, and adventure for kids of all ages," Mayor Flannery said.

Acting CEO of Moreton Bay Region Industry & Tourism (MBRIT), Luke Edwards said the Moreton Kids Festival continues to be a highlight of the city's event calendar, attracting thousands of locals and visitors each year.

"The Moreton Kids Festival has become the ultimate family experience, offering hours of entertainment and activities in a safe and vibrant environment," Luke Edwards said.

"Families travel from across South-East Queensland to experience this special day, and it's fantastic to see so many smiles and memories being made."

Mayor Flannery added, "This event not only delights children but also drives tourism and strengthens our local economy."

"It's another shining example of why City of Moreton Bay is such a fantastic place to live, work and play," Mayor Flannery finished.
